

Curriculum Vitae

Personal:

Sameena Hasnain

hasnain_sameena@hotmail.com

Qualifications:

- PhD Candidate (thesis submitted on 30. 6. 2010; supervisor: Dr Hasan Qasim Murad),
 - Title of thesis: Mohsin ul Mulk: Life and Thought.
 - Area of Specialisation: Modern Islam
- Masters in 1988, University of Karachi, Department of Islamic History.
- BA in 1985, Islamia College for Women, Karachi.

Experience: Teaching in the Department of Islamic History in the following capacities:

1994-1995 Co-operative teacher

1995-1996 Ad hoc Lecturer

1996- 2006 Lecturer

2006-Todate Assistant Professor

Teaching Responsibilities:

Presently teaching the following courses to BA and Masters students:

- Modern Trends in Muslim India and Pakistan: 1857-1947.
- History of the Umayyads of Damascus and History of Umayyads of Spain.
- History of Muslim Spain (for subsidiary).

Achievements:

- Publications:

- 1) “Mohsin-ul-Mulk: A thinker in his own right,” Daily Dawn, Karachi, 30 December 2006 (Special Addition on Muslim League’s Hundred Years).
- 2) “Mehdi Ali Khan, Nawab Mohsin-al-Mulk in the mirror of his religious writings,” Fikr-o-Nazar, vol.45, no.02, June 2008, University Literary Quarterly, Aligarh India.
- 3) “Pakistan kay who kutub khanay jinheyn meyn nay daikha”, in the forthcoming issue of Tarikh, Quarterly Journal, Lahore.

Seminars, Workshops, and Conferences:

Conducted the following seminars at Department level:

- 1) “Palestine: Past, Present and Future in 2001”.
- 2) “How to use the Library”, General Sections of the Library, Oriental Languages and Islamic History Section, and the Periodical Section of the Library in 2009, 2010 and 2011.
- 3) “Annotated Bibliography”, in 2009.
- 4) “Nature, Method, and Interpretation of History”, in 2010.
- 5) “Beginnings of Research”, in 2010.
- 6) “Climitical Changes and its Impact on Enviornment”, in 2010.
- 7) “Plagiarism – A Crime Beyond Measure”, in 2011.
- 8) “Islamic Modernism: An Overview”, in 2011.
- 9) “History and Interpretation of History”, in 2011.
- 10) “Socialism: History, Definition, and Philosophy”, in 2011.